Sean Foran piano

John Parker drums

Pat Marchisella acoustic bass

Trichotomy's compelling, hugely dynamic trio music draws on the post-rock of Radiohead, ECM minimalism and their love of improvisation in an entrancing Australian echo of the European jazz innovations of the likes of EST or Tord Gustavsen.

Truly captivating, they skillfully blend dense, exciting improvisations and delicate atmospheric sounds, conjuring up sounds of modern jazz, ambient music, avantgarde rock, free improvisation and contemporary classical music.
