Jazzwerkruhr initiated the Jazz Prize Ruhr as bi-annual event in 2011. This year the Jazz Prize Ruhr goes to 'the dorf'. The big formation was the clear favorite of the 8 jury members and will receive the prize including a cheque over 10.000 Euros at the award winning ceremony at the domicile in Dortmund on November 8th. Various bands and artists will perform at the domicile as well as in the shops and kiosks in the surrounding. The show will be moderated by Klaus Flehe, a music insider, DJ, author and moderater of Fiehe/Plan B on the radio chanel 1LIVE. The Jazz Prize Ruhr opens the 20. Jazztage Dortmund.

We kindly invite you to spend a spectacular evening with and among our village (the dorf): Let's celebrate this band!

The next day at 11 am we will discuss about the 'Why', the individual in society and about the 'causa Europe' In an inter- national think tank. The interdisciplinary melting pot project will show us in the evening, how this could look and sound like on stage. And last but not least: the 4rth bundesjazzwerkstatt will perform in the domicile on sunday, 10th of nov.: this 4rth national lab focuses on electronic music as the BumpingJazzWires.
