COMPETITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Introduction:

The International Massimo Urbani Award wants to honour the legendary gifted roman saxophonist Massimo Urbani's memory. The Award was created and founded by Paolo Piangiarelli, owner of the "Philology Label" and tireless promoter of young jazz talents. The Award aims to find rising young musicians and to contribute to the development of their artistic careers and to the spread of jazz music.

Art. 1 The International Massimo Urbani Award 2022 (named PIMU) is carried out in a final step in Camerino, in the province of Macerata, Marche region on June 25-26, 2022.

Art. 2 The competition is open to Italian and foreign jazz soloists playing any instrument (including voice). Musicians who have already taken part in the competition can also apply, except for those who ranked first, second or third in the previous editions.

Art. 3 Application forms for the PIMU must be sent before May 15, 2022 (evidence will be constituted by the date of receipt of the e-mail with all the required material).

The competition announcement and the application form can be downloaded from the website: www.premiomassimourbani.com
